DIARY NOTES

15 July 1964

1. At the Executive Committee Meeting this morning the Director said that in a conversation yesterday with Clark Clifford, Chairman of the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board, Clifford had raised again the question of the position of the Director of Central Intelligence and wondered whether he should be in this building or somewhere else, etc. In the course of the discussion General Carter reminded Mr. McCone that according to the law the Central Intelligence Agency and not the Director of Central Intelligence is the coordinating agent in the Intelligence Community. The idea of the DCI rather than CIA being the coordinating agent has developed since Mr. McCone's arrival here and publication of the late President Kennedy's letter to this effect.

2. I asked [REDACTED] to remind General Carter that he should talk to the Director about our executive pay structure to become effective with the new pay bill.

3. I asked Emmett Echols to report to me on why we brought [REDACTED] into the pool before he was finally cleared when he actually had a job with Safeway Stores. Emmett assured me that they were not doing this as a routine thing but said that he would look into the [REDACTED] case and let me know.
